

A. Course contents of the webinar:

1. Introduction to the various types of solid waste and bulk waste generator
2. Possible disposal methodologies of the solid waste especially MSW.
3. Different rules and Notification concerning various types of hazardous waste
4. Municipal solid waste rule 2026 in detail.
5. Segregation at source, collection, sorting and disposal of Municipal solid waste as per MSW Mngt Rules 2026.
6. Introduction to Central online portal and EBWGR for solid waste Mngt.
7. Roles responsibilities of various entities in managing solid waste as per SWM Rules 2026, including that of waste generator, municipal corporation and various Govt. Bodies.
8. The concept of SCF and RDF from solid waste and how the industries will be affected by mandatory use of SCF/RDF.
9. The concept of GHG, how this rule helps to reduce GHGs.

B. Who should attend?

1. Those who are working in the environment department in industry and desire to update their knowledge on the latest rules on Mngt of solid waste
2. Environmental consultancy professionals who are and who wish to obtain NABET approval as Environmental Coordinator for sector- 37 (Municipal solid waste Mngt Facility) and FAE for SHW/ SW.
3. Those who are responsible for writing and reviewing Environmental Impact Assessment reports.
4. Environmental Students and beginners who are keen to gain practical knowledge about management of Municipal solid waste and their recycling and disposal.
5. Officers in Municipal corporations who oversee sanitary department and supervising the operations of Municipal solid waste Mngt and Handling.